

WHAT MADE PASTOR KISS?—PRANK! SAYS PASTOR—PATERNAL FEELING! SAYS MAIDEN

The Story of a Preacher's Kiss in Black and White.

BY KENNETH W. PAYNE

Cedar Grove, N. J., April 10.—When three kisses are applied by a gray-haired clergyman, age 55, to the lips of his prettiest parishioner, aged 19, it is merely manifestation of fatherly affection, the exuberance of prankish boyhood or the work of his satanic highness, the Old Nick himself?

Miss Maud Jacobs, the maiden kissed, says she thought the ministerial embraces were token of paternal regard.

Dr. J. Lewis Evans, the kissing pas-
